

Mr. Janardan M. Mogare

M. A. (English), M. Ed., M. Phil, NET, DSM

Mr. Janardan Mogare is currently an Assistant Professor at School of Education and Research, MIT-ADT University, Pune. He has a total 11.3 years of experience in the field of Teacher Education and 2.5 years experience at School level. He has presented & published 2 papers with ISBN and ISSN titles. Currently he is pursuing Ph.D. from Department of Education of University of Mumbai. He has also completed his Diploma in School Management from YCMOU. He has conducted a number of seminars on psychology based topics. His research area is Activity based Learning for developing language skills. He was a coordinator for YCMOU based courses - ICT for School Practices and Diploma in School Management. He has published his book on “Educational Management” under Himalaya Publications. His areas of interest are Language acquisition skills, Constructivism, Organizational Management, Job satisfaction, Leadership skills and ICT in education.